TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 6, 1893.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Sun rises to-morrow at 4:57; sun sets 7:25. High water 1:12 a. m. and 1:25 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section showers, followed by cooler and fair weather Wednesday, westerly winds.

THE DOG WAGON ON ITS ROUNDS.—The dog wagon began making its rounds of the city to-day. A "coop" has been improvised on the wagon, and the team is driven by Raymond Smith, and is in charge of Frank Wood, captain of the chain gang, who has utilized the conscripts under him as the catchers. The gang were armed with hoops over which nets had been placed, and this being a more exciting pastime than raking the streets, the gang worked with a will, and woe betide the luckless canine minus a muzzle which crossed their path. Some amusing scenes occurred when "swoops" were made on dogs, and as the wagon drew high certain neighborhoods the owners of pets grabbed them up as excitedly as they would children had a tiger escaped from a menagerie. One colored individual, on seeing his dog in jeopardy, picked up the animal and made a break for a restaurant, but he was not nimble enough for the catchers, as they not only got the dog but his master and arrested him for contempt. About a dozen shaggy looking curs were taken up, among which only two or three apparently were worth ransoming. A pound has been prepared in a small frame house on north Fairfax street, and after a period of forty-eight hours if not redeemed the brutes will pay the debt of nature and reappear later in the shape of some sort of fertilizer, or shoe blacking (it is said they make an important factor in both). One hundred and forty-five dog licenses have been issued up to to-day.

DEATH OF A LADY.—Mrs. Rosa Kaufmann, wife of Mr. Joseph Kaufmann, one of our old and well-known citizens, died at her residence on south Fairfax street at an early hour this morning, after a long and painful illness. The deceased lived with her family in Alexandria for about thirty-two years, and was a lady who was justly esteemed by the many acquaintances she had necessarily made during all these years. For some time a painful malady had been exhausting her vitality, and her watchful relatives and friends were painfully aware of the fact that she was beyond the aid of human skill; and that it was but a matter of time when Death would claim his own. The members of her household and all others near and dear to her have the sympathy of the community in which they have so long lived, in the sorrow into which they have been plunged.

THE CONCERT given at the Opera House last night under the able management of Mr. J. J. Burnham, of Washington, for the benefit of the relief fund of Potomac Lodge, I. O. O. F., was a decided success as was attested by the large and appreciative audience in attendance. While all did well those deserving special mention were Miss Dorothy Byrd Rogers in her vocal solo, "To Serilla," Miss Laura Bangs in song "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep," and Miss Dimple Shackelford in her skirt dancing. Miss Jennie L. Dexter caused considerable merriment by her recitation "A Cure for Stammering." Mr. Chas. West was well received and sang several good songs, but the "hit" of the evening was made by Mr. J. J. Burnham in his inimitable comic songs. The Washington Mandolin, Banjo and Guitar Club also rendered some sweet music. Mr. Sherman Fowler presided at the piano.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.—The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, was held last night. One new member was elected and two applications for membership received and referred to appropriate committee. The committees on memorial day trip to Richmond made their reports, and they were discharged. A committee was appointed to arrange a complete list of all the Confederate dead in this vicinity and to locate their graves. A delegation from the camp will attend the unveiling of the Confederate monument at Charlottesville; rates having been fixed at $3.20 for the round trip.

A delegation will also attend the unveiling of a Confederate monument at Portsmouth on the 15th inst. The annual meeting of the Grand Camp will be held there on the 14th.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The Omaha, Neb., World in speaking of the meeting in that city of railway surgeons says: "The ladies were numerous in the hall, and their pleasant, cheerful faces radiated through the building and had a soothing effect upon the thousand surgeons who had come from all parts of the nation to discuss their own business in their own way. The doctors' wives are queenly women, who are deeply interested in the affairs of the association, and their daughters who come to Omaha, are as graceful and charming as were the maids of Athens when Goldsmith wrote his history of Greece. Among the Virginia surgeons that were present are Dr. George Ross and Dr. Brock, of Richmond, and Dr. M. W. O'Brien, of this city, who are accompanied by their wives."

TO TAKE CHARGE OF THE "SUB" ENGINE.—Mr. Banner Young, of the police force, will have charge of the Wheeler engine which is to take the place of the Columbia while the latter apparatus is in Frederick, Md. The following is President W. A. Smoot's request to Mayor Strauss that he allow Mr. Young to act.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., June 6, 1893.
Honored Sir—Will you please allow Mr. Banner Young to take charge of the sub engine we have in our engine house in absence of the Columbia engine, No. 4, from the city and oblige yours most respectfully,
W. A. SMOOT.

Prest, Columbia Engine Co. No. 4.
The Major upon receipt of the above immediately expressed his willingness to grant the request.

Mrs. Hearst's fast steam yacht Yamoose, which coaled at the wharf of Mr. J. R. Zimmerman in this city yesterday evening, left here this morning for Washington and later passed by the city on her way to Hampton Roads. While here the yacht was visited by many citizens and much admired.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cloudy and warm. There were several prisoners at the station house.

Mayor Strauss this morning disposed of the following cases:

Moses Smith, colored, charged by Henry Munson, colored, with disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

The defendant then became plaintiff and charged Smith with shooting crap, and the latter was fined $2.50.

Charles Foley, a "dead drunk," who had to be hauled to the station house in a wagon, was fined $2.50.

A cow which had been taken up was held for the appearance of the owner, who lives at Waterloo.

Thomas Butler, colored, for fighting at a festival, was fined $5 by Justice Thompson.

COUNTY COURT.—Judge D. M. Chichester presiding.—The time of the court was occupied to-day in hearing evidence in the case of the Washington Southern Railway Company vs. Johnston's heirs. This is a case in which the defendants appealed from the decision of the commissioners appointed by the court to condemn certain land of the Johnston estate through which the railroad company propose running their line from Waterloo to the Aqueduct, and to ascertain the value of said land. The report of the commissioners was confirmed and court adjourned till to-morrow when the liquor cases will be tried.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. Eddie Shinn has gone on a visit to his brother, Robert Shinn, at Augusta, Ga. Mr. Shinn left here a year ago as clerk to master mechanic and in four months had been promoted to chief clerk to the superintendent of the Augusta railroad.

Mrs. D. J. Howell has gone to Bremen, Bluff, Fluvanna county, to spend a few weeks.

HAYMARKET AGRICULTURAL CLUB. Mr. R. Belcher entertained a large number of his friends and neighbors at "Maple Spring," Prince William county, yesterday. The object was to reorganize the Haymarket Agricultural Club, which had been in existence for 10 years, until 1887. There was much enthusiasm shown, and the old club is again in existence. Mr. R. Belcher was elected president and W. L. Heuser, secretary. The elegant repast was enjoyed by all present.

STORM.—A gentleman from Fauquier county says there was a heavy and destructive storm in the neighborhood of Upperville last Saturday night. Rain fell in torrents from six until eleven o'clock. Bridges that had been standing on the Upperville turnpike for years were swept away. The storm was not very wide in its path. Among the greatest sufferers were Messrs. Jno. W. Kincheloe, Wm. F. Dowell and E. C. Holton.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge J. K. M. Norton presiding.—The estate of Dr. John Richards was committed to the Sergeant for administration.

L. C. Barley was appointed administrator w. w. a. of Mary S. Miles.

James Pettit was appointed guardian of his grand-daughter, Ada E. Pettit.

Edgar Lyles was substituted a trustee for the M. P. Church in place of J. L. Pettit, deceased.

OFF FOR FREDERICK.—The Columbia fire engine and handsome white horse carriage left here this morning for Frederick, Md., in charge of Messrs. Wm. Wood and F. L. Entwistle. The members of the company will leave here to-morrow and will take part in the firemen's celebration to be held in Frederick this week. The Columbia will be entered in the water throwing contest of engines.

DEAD.—Mr. Richard Cowling, son of the late John Cowling of West End, died at his rooms at the Concordia today after a long illness of consumption.
